Introductory

WE TAKE pleasure in presenting to our patrons the twenty-third volume of the Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda Directory for the year 1910, trusting that it will meet the approbation of a discriminating public. No pains or expense have been spared to make the work complete.

ALL DEPARTMENTS.—The index on page 26 is a guide to every department of the Directory.

STREET GUIDE.—A complete new Street Guide has been prepared for this issue of the Directory, showing every street in the newly annexed territory, as well as all additions, new plats, etc. This work has been compiled by thoroughly competent authority and we feel assured that it will be appreciated by all who find a Street Guide a necessity.

THE CLASSIFIED DEPARTMENT, pages 1315 to 1504, contains a list of all individuals, firms and corporations engaged in business in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, arranged alphabetically according to the vocation in which they are engaged and forms a complete buyer's guide, which is consulted daily by thousands of people.

The cities represented in this volume have shown a healthy growth during the past year and will show a decided increase in population. The United States Census will be taken this summer, and as the figures given in that census will be the authority for future reference we do not deem it necessary to make an estimate of the population at this time.

In preparing this work care has been taken to abbreviate and condense as much as possible to make the work less cumbersome. We desire criticism of our efforts and will deem it a favor if our attention is called to any errors or omissions, so that it may be rectified in future editions.

We appreciate the liberal patronage given this issue of the Directory and the assistance given in collecting the data.

Respectfully,

POLK-HUSTED DIRECTORY CO.

POSTAL RATES AND CLASSIFICATION OF MAIL MATTER.

Domestic mail matter, that is, mail matter sent in the mails from some postoffice within the United States to some other postoffice within the same, is divided into four classes, as follows:

First-Class Matter.

Rate of postage: Two cents for each ounce or fraction thereof.

Second-Class Matter.

Second-class matter is of two kinds. First that sent by publishers or news agents; second, that sent by other than publishers or news agents.

Rate of postage to publishers and news agents: One cent per pound or fraction thereof; to individuals, one cent for each four ounces or fraction. Second-class publications mailed by publishers or news agents to Canada must be prepaid at the transient rate of 1c for each 4 ounces with stamps affixed, except that daily publications may be mailed at 1 cent a pound paid at the office of mailing.

Third Class—Printed Matter.

Rate of postage: One cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof, and must be fully prepaid by stamps affixed.

Fourth Class—Miscellaneous Matter.

Rate of postage: One cent for each ounce or fractional part thereof.

Mailable matter of the fourth class embraces all matter not embraced in the first, second and third class, which is not in its form or nature liable to destroy or deface or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bag or harm the persons of any one engaged in the postal service, and is not above four pounds in weight for each package thereof, except in case of single books weighing in excess of that amount.

HAVING noted for many years the lack of lightness and humor which have characterized alike the dictionary and the city directory, we shall endeavor in this ad. to remedy such defect by inserting a few choice Limericks of home manufacture.

IN our days of tin snips and of taut,
Lined or lined, I think a hole and
a rib,

See how my trousers
When I sit down,
I see the holes in the back and the tail.

SO I feel, I guess, and you
I know,

For when I sit down in a chair,
I find the holes in the back and the tail,
I find the holes in the back and the tail.

IN our days of tin snips and of taut,
Lined or lined, I think a hole and
a rib,

See how my trousers
When I sit down,
I see the holes in the back and the tail.

SO I feel, I guess, and you
I know,

For when I sit down in a chair,
I find the holes in the back and the tail,
I find the holes in the back and the tail.

AS the stand of our craftsmen was
"The

At the bath of the art, and again
Through age after age,
Let us letter the page:
"The Printer, a Man among Men."

NEither a nor lickspittle he,
He likes not the crook of the
Lore,

He will hold his head high,
Look a man in the eye,
Be courteous, kindly and free.

GIVE him his desserts—treat him
right,

Don't haggle or grudge him his
share,

He works but a living,
He asks no more of giving;
Be kind, and take this advice.

THough he works not exorbitant
wages,

Yet he works not alone "for his bread,"

'Tis his mission to aid
In promoting your trade,
And he works not in secret or stealth.

WE feel that we owe the reader an apology, inasmuch as after offering him lightness and humor, upon "taking our stick in hand" for the purpose of composition, the Limerick Muse has led us into this preachment, a result entirely unforeseen. If the thought is considered scrappy or the verse uneven, bear in mind that, following the illustrious example of B. Franklin and H. Greely, these verses were extemporized "at the ease." Courteously yours,
